Sierra Madre News Sold to L.R. Goshorn

Former Resident of Pennsylvania to Assume Control

March 1

Was at One Time Youngest City Editor of Great City Newspaper

Announcement is made today by Joe R. Eastwood and Joseph L. Asbury, owners and editors of the Sierra Madre News, of the sale of the newspaper to Lawrence R. Goshorn, of Pittsburgh and Los Angeles.

Assuming that the people of this community would want to know something about their new neighbor, who is shortly to become editor of this newspaper, we went in search of information concerning him. The result is presented in this issue of the News.

First of all is a summary of his activities taken from "Western Pennsylvanians," the "Who's Who" publication of the Keystone State. Next is offered a letter from Col. Charles Alexander Rook, who now maintains a winter home at La Canada. For many years Col. Rook was president and editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, one of the most influential publications of the East and on which Mr. Goshorn served as correspondent and political editor for 14 years.

Finally is submitted a letter from Harry Burke, well known newspaperman, short-story writer and collaborator with Irvin S. Cobb in sketches we have nearly all enjoyed on the stage. Mr. Burke is now a resident of Alhambra. He and the soon-to-be editor of the News began their newspaper careers at about the same time in Pittsburgh. Mr. Burke later going to New York, where he became sporting editor and later city editor of the New York World.

WHAT "WHO'S WHO" SAYS OF L. R. GOSHORN
In 1923 the Western Pennsylvania Biographical Association of Pittsburgh, issued a volume entitled "Western Pennsylvanians, a work for Newspaper and Library Reference." This volume contains a sketch of Mr. Goshorn's career, which is hereby reprinted:

An outstanding figure in the political history of Western Pennsylvania, and especially that of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county, for the past quarter of a century is Lawrence R. Goshorn, chairman of the Republican City Committee and City Treasurer of Pittsburgh (1923).

The subject of this sketch is a shining example of, and typifies, the graduate from the Fourth Estate, whose training in active newspaper work, and attendance upon national, state, city and county conventions for many years has perfectly fitted him for political leadership in his community and state.

Born in Sharpsburg, Pa., January 11, 1876, the son of Nicholas and Mary A. Goshorn, the youngest of their six children became a resident of Pittsburgh when aged 14 years. He was educated in the public schools with prep school study at Pittsburgh Academy, and later attended Greensburg Seminary, which he left to enter the newspaper field as a reporter on the old Commercial Gazette, now the Gazette Times, in 1893. His rise was so rapid that when aged 19 Mr. Goshorn attained the unique distinction of being the youngest city editor of a metropolitan newspaper in the United States, following his acceptance of this position on the Pittsburgh Post. He was promoted from the city desk to political editor of that same paper the same year.

The late George W. Guthrie, afterward United States Ambassador to Japan, but in 1906 the mayor of Pittsburgh, was among the first to recognize Mr. Goshorn's political ability, and appointed him in that year Delinquent Tax Collector. In 1911 he transferred his newspaper allegiance from the Post to the Pittsburgh Dispatch, and became the political editor of this publication, which was recognized as one of the foremost and influential newspapers in the country from the standpoint of republican national politics. He remained in that capacity until January 1, 1921, when he was proffered and accepted the portfolio of City Treasurer by Mayor William A. Magee.

The press credentials of every national convention of Republican and Democratic parties from 1886, when Wm. Jennings Bryan came out of oblivion as the "Boy Orator of the Platte," to those of the Chicago and San Francisco conventions of 1920, are the treasured possessions of Mr. Goshorn, who "covered" them all. In 1915 Governor Martin G. (Continued on page Eight)

COMMUNITY PLAYERS PLAN MEMBERSHIP NITE AT EARLY DATE

A meeting of the board of directors of the Community Players was held Monday night at which time plans for membership night about March 7 were laid. Two one-act plays will be given. "Spirals," directed by Mrs. Cecily Allen, featuring Mrs. Allen, Mr. Osgood, Hall Perry, Yerda Adams and W. C. Gruitt will be one of the plays presented. It was given with marked success before the drama section of the Monrovia Woman's Club recently.

"Modesty," directed by J. N. Hawley, will soon be cast, and rehearsals started, to be in readiness for presentation Membership Night.

Bunionists Warm Up For Climb

Several Old-timers Limber Up Their Creaking Joints

Candidates to Start Singly, Owing to Danger Along the Trail

With more than fifty entries registered up to Tuesday noon, and a great apparent interest in all quarters, the success of the second annual Mt. Wilson Trail Climb seems definitely assured. Phil Hartman, owner of Orchard Camp, and sponsor of the contest, was in the city Monday and Tuesday, and in Los Angeles attending to various details of the big race, and is more than pleased with the interest manifested, especially among the younger athletes.

Last Saturday a request was received from Los Angeles high school for a number of entry blanks, and other high schools will undoubtedly enter several aspirants for the cups and medals to be awarded the successful entrants.

The youngsters, however, are not going to command all the attention, for a number of past greats who are now beyond the three-score mark have entered and are in regular training for the up-hill grind. Emerett, 68, of Arcadia, and Stagg, 66, of Monrovia, boast old-time records that will win close scrutiny by sportively included individuals who may wish to pin their hopes and shakels on the hardy footmen who will assay the climb.

The runners will be checked out at the starting point at ten or fifteen-minute intervals thruout the day. Mr. Hartman explained to the News that this will be necessary in order to avoid the danger of "rough stuff" on the trails, the chances of injury to runners being very apparent when the hard-going and distance from trail to the first landing spots in case of accident is considered.

Boys and girls under 15 will not be required to register with the A.A.U. for this race.

The Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with Mr. Hartman in arranging for checkers and officials to take care of the start of the race. A dressing room for the contestants will be provided, and other necessary conveniences will be supplied.

Officials will also be stationed along the route to see that every entry receives fair play.

The new street decorations will be secured in time to decorate the business section on the day of the race, and the down-town area will assume a festive air.

Gordon McMillan Heads Rifle Club Formed Recently

The Santa Anita Rifle Club, a branch of the National Rifle Association, was re-organized last night at American Legion headquarters, with fifteen members present.

Officers elected were: G. G. McMillan, president; H. Clay Reavis, vice-president; Victor C. Hill, secretary; Ben Stinman, treasurer, and Thomas Schwartz, executive officer.

The club will meet again next Tuesday night. Among the plans to be established soon is the outdoor range, when matches will be arranged with rifle clubs of other cities.

Again Try To Remove Host Trees

Local People Take Hint from Work In Neighboring Community

Chamber to Cooperate With Theater Manager in Gala Night

Can the dead and deceased citrus trees in Sierra Madre be legally removed, or not? is a question which may soon be answered. W. R. Humphries, at the meeting of the chamber of commerce Monday night, stated that notices requiring the removal of objectionable trees along Huntington Drive had recently been posted, and it seemed reasonable to the local chamber that if such removal can be required in Arcadia, the same thing can be done here. A committee was appointed to look into the matter and report at an early date. Mr. Humphries being appointed chairman of the committee.

The "great big heart of Sierra Madre" is going to be put to a test soon, if plans of the chamber as discussed Monday night are carried out. The very commendable spirit of Manager Coburn of the Wistaria Theatre in installing the latest equipment, including talkies, was presented as something that should receive more than a passing gesture of applause. After considerable discussion it was decided to "buy the house" for a night during the coming week, and the chamber of commerce directors plan to take charge of the ticket sale, turning the entire proceeds over to Mr. Coburn. A committee consisting of Mr. Humphries, from the chamber of commerce; Mrs. Gruitt, P.T.A.; Mrs. Olsen, Legion Auxiliary; Miss Cadmus, Woman's Club; Bob Babbitt, Volunteer Firemen; Jim Heasley, Canyon Improvement Association; Chas. Klunk, Kiwanis, was appointed to promote the sale of tickets in their different organizations.

Sierra Madre has an enviable reputation in rising to emergencies in time of need, and it is believed that local residents will welcome an opportunity to show appreciation of Mr. Coburn's efforts to give the city a good picture house. The board of directors will take an active part in the big Mt. Wilson Trail race, to be staged here March 15, under the sponsorship of Phil Hartman, and a committee of official representatives of the chamber will be appointed to care for the many details that will be part of the day's events.

Termite Operator Advises Treating Planting Stakes

At this time of the year when everyone's attention is turned to planting, it is very advisable that precautions be taken to "treat" the stakes to be used in supporting flowers and shrubs with a view to guarding against termite infestation.

George A. Moran, local builder and termite operator, states that these stakes should be treated with zinc chloride and creosote or hot asphaltum to get the best results.

Continuing his discussion of the places of entrance used by this pest, Mr. Moran mentions the fireplace, the bathroom where the pipes are connected with the ground and where there is always a certain amount of dampness. They may also come in thru the place where the ice box drains, he says.

It is even said that some building and loan associations will not make a loan now on homes unless termite inspection has made.

Mrs. Palmer Reed Passes Away in Los Angeles

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Palmer T. Reed at her home at 2430 Ridge View Ave., Los Angeles. The Reeds were one of the pioneer families of Sierra Madre and Mrs. Reed was most prominent in musical circles and other activities of the community. Memorial services were held at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn, Thursday, of this week.

One Member School Board To be Elected

Mrs. Allen Consents to Become Candidate for Re-election

The coming school election, to be held March 28, will give local voters their next opportunity to exercise their rights of franchise, and all voters are urged to register at least twenty days before that date, providing they have not already attended to this important duty.

Only one member of the board is to be elected this year, and Mrs. Cecily Allen, who has so capably held office as clerk of the board for the past two years, will be a candidate to succeed herself, having acquiesced to requests of her friends to remain on the board. Other candidates may have their names placed on the ballot ten days prior to the election. And as usual, blank spaces will be left so that names may be written in, should voters so desire. In view of Mrs. Allen's fine record it is doubtful if another candidate could be secured to enter the lists.

No bids were received on the kindergarten and domestic science buildings at the meeting of the board Monday night, and it is understood that the kindergarten building will be taken over by the city and moved to the lot recently allocated for Boy Scout and Girl Reserve activities, the city taking charge of the moving.

This will afford a splendid opportunity to provide a meeting place for the young people, and will undoubtedly meet with spontaneous approval on the part of the public.

The local postoffice will be closed all day Saturday, in observance of Washington's birthday. After the 8 a. m. dispatch, no mail will leave Sierra Madre until 8 a. m. Monday morning.

Kiwanis Speaker Discusses Reptiles Found Near Here

"Snakes" was the subject of a talk given before the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club last Tuesday by Charles Bogert, representative of the Trail Finders, an outdoor boys organization.

While Mr. Bogert admitted that this particular section abounds in various kinds of reptiles, he stated that there is very little danger from them as the only one that is poisonous is the rattlesnake and it is not of a very vicious type. It will not bite unless stepped on or attacked, he said. The speaker collects reptiles as a hobby and had four rattlers with him to demonstrate his very interesting and instructive talk.

Various theories such as the "hoop snake" that puts its tail in its mouth and rolls down hill, the "glass snake" that breaks in two and comes back together again, were all exploded as pure myths.

Mr. Bogert advised anyone who plans to take a trip into a country infested by rattlers to carry along some preparation for counteracting the toxic effects of a bite and to "keep cool" if bitten in order to prevent the spread of poison by increased blood circulation.

Frank Spencer was chairman of the day. The speaker next week will be C. D. Smalley of the T.A.T. Maddux, Air Lines who will discuss the "Romance of Aviation."

Mary Ward Wins Critics' High Praise

'Vagrant Thoughts of Sentiment' Draws Comment in 'Saturday Nite'

Verse on 'Sierra Madre' Reproduced in Well Known Magazine

Sierra Madre has so many noted men and women—artists, musicians, physicians, and men and women of important affairs—that one must accomplish something quite out of the usual in order to "break in" to the local hall of fame.

This has been done quickly and charmingly by Mary Ward, whose book "Vagrant Thoughts of Sentiment," is attracting quite a good deal of attention among the literati of Southern California.

In Saturday Night of February 8, Sam T. Clover, well known critic, and editor of that publication says: "To the columns of Saturday Night, Mary Ward of Sierra Madre, has, occasionally, contributed bits of poetry that I admired and was glad to publish. Now she has issued a collection of her verse, which she christens 'Vagrant Thoughts of Sentiment.' It is a sprightly muse, withal. I especially like the 'Song of the Tenderfoot,' 'Cold Grey Dawn,' 'Loneliness,' and 'Sierra Madre.' The latter I venture to reproduce here:

The sleepy streets of pepper trees; Wistaria swaying in the breeze; Thy houses roofed with warm, red tiles On which the summer sunshine smiles. Thy nights of subtle orange-scent, Which drifts along, its fragrance sweet, In swarming evening's half-veiled light. Where mockers sing throughout the night. Thy rugged, brooding, gray-blue hills, Whose soothing, restful shadow stills The lust for wealth, with their gray calm That sheds on us their healing balm.

A cordial letter from John Steven McGroarty expresses his great appreciation of Mrs. Ward's book, while Walt Mason, beloved author of "Rippling Rhymes," in a letter to Mrs. Ward says, in part: "You have the poet's sense of rhythm, without which one's effusions are hard to read, and to me, irritating. Unless verse is smooth and melodious it affects me like the music of filing a saw. I haven't had time to read much, but the few poems I read impressed me as being very good indeed."

Mrs. Ward's friends here are deeply interested in the manifest success of her little volume and are eagerly awaiting more extended publication of her work.

Mrs. Cathern Roe of Inglewood came to Sierra Madre for a few days visit and needful rest. She is staying at the home of her son, Wm. Roe, 288 Mariposa.

Wistaria Theater To Install Sound At an Early Date

The Wistaria Theatre, recently re-opened and re-constructed under the management of Mr. Coburn, has ordered "talking" equipment from the East and this will be installed just as soon as it arrives. Mr. Coburn says.

Huge Mirror Arc projection lamps were installed this week, making the projection equipment equal to any in the big theatres of Los Angeles, the manager claims.

Great interest is being shown in the drawings held during the week. Each Tuesday, adults draw for a set of glassware that is given away, and on Thursday nights the children draw for a handsome pair of roller skates.

The program is changed completely every other day. There are two shows each night, the first one beginning at 7 o'clock and the second at 9 o'clock. A matinee is given every Saturday afternoon, starting at 2:30. Patrons are advised to save their coupons to "get in on" the free drawings.

Elect Richards Local Fire Chief For Fourth Year

William D. Richards has been re-elected chief of the volunteer fire department for the fourth consecutive year.

Last year's officers were re-appointed as follows: George Norris, first assistant to the chief; Vernon Udell, second assistant; Joe Swanson, captain of first aid squad; S. Petzel, captain of canyon Park crew; James C. Heasley, secretary; and H. A. Thew, treasurer.

Eight members from the Sierra Madre department attended a meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Firemen's Association held in Covina, Thursday.

RALPH W. STEWART SAYS OTHER PAPER 'GARBLED' ARTICLE

In an article appearing in the Arcadia Journal on Tuesday of this week, relative to an address given by Ralph W. Stewart of this city, Mr. Stewart points out three errors in the facts given.

"The meeting was at the Pasadena Legion Club House but was a meeting of the Americanization Committee of the Los Angeles County Council of the Legion and not a meeting of the Pasadena Legion as stated," Mr. Stewart said. "The date was Friday the 14th, not Thursday. And I did not talk on Armistice Day, in fact did not mention it, but talked on Americanization work of the Legion in the 18th District. Otherwise the article was all right," Mr. Stewart added.

Public Can Aid Greatly If Willing

Courtesy to Enumerators a Most Important Factor in Big Job

The 15th decennial census of the United States will be taken during the month of April. The enumeration will be made by a force of 100,000 enumerators who will go from house to house and secure the information required by the census. Every person is to be enumerated, as far as possible, at his "usual place of abode" or the place where he usually lives. Where individual members of a family are away from home at the time the census is taken they will be reported to the enumerator by other members of the family.

For cases where it is known in advance that the whole family will be away from home at that time, special provision has been made by the Director of the Census in the form of an absent family schedule which is to be filled out by some responsible member of the family in advance of the census date and transmitted to the local Supervisor of the Census. A copy of this schedule can be secured by application to Mr. C. E. Chenoweth, 311 East Broadway, Glendale, California, who is the Census Supervisor for this district.

Families planning to be away during the month of April, leaving the home closed or with no one in charge who is qualified to give the census information to the enumerator, are urged to obtain one of these schedules at once and to fill it out and send it to Mr. Chenoweth at the earliest possible date. Or if the house is left in charge of a servant who will be sure to be at home when the enumerator calls, the schedule may be left with such servant for delivery to the enumerator. The information furnished on this schedule will be treated as confidential and will be used only for the tabulation of statistics which will not reveal any information with regard to individuals or families.

Sierra Madre Art To Be Placed on Exhibition Soon

Mrs. Fred Griebenow, chairman of art for both the Woman's Club and the Chamber of Commerce, announces that a tentative date for the opening of the Sierra Madre Art Gallery has been set for Saturday, March 8th. Arrangements are now being made for the exhibit in the assembly room of the city hall, and the pictures to be exhibited will soon be placed.

A reception will be held on the opening day, invitations to be forwarded to various interested individuals thruout Southern California. A full announcement of the opening will be made in a forthcoming issue of the News.

Rev. A. O. Pritchard Elected President Of Alumni Ass'n

At a meeting of the Southern California Alumni Association of the Union Theological Seminary of New York City, the Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church was elected president for the ensuing year.

Frank E. Cox and his aunt, Mrs. Josephine Woodward who is visiting here, attended the Orange Show at San Bernardino Wednesday.

Many Guests At Woman's Club Event

Reciprocity Day Sets High Point in Club Yearly Calendar

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter is Principal Speaker at Gathering

Some 200 guests, half of whom represented other clubs in the district Federation, attended Reciprocity Day at the Woman's club last Thursday.

The gathering of Federated clubs was compared to a university with all its divisions and departments at a grand home coming, by Mrs. John H. Robertson, president of the Sierra Madre club, in her greeting to Reciprocity guests.

Breakfast was served to the guests at 11:30 by Mrs. William Lees and Mrs. F. L. C. Reoss. At the speaker's table, floral decorations of violets, pansies and maidenhair ferns, tied with wide ribbon bows, were arranged by Mrs. Emil Smith, Mrs. Waverly Pratt and Mrs. Frank Lovell, with tall candles on either side. At other tables decorations were equally artistic.

From the speaker's table, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, past president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and associate director of Public Relations for the Association of Motion Picture Producers, addressed the assembly on the "American Man," giving personal reminiscences as pertinent to a group of a family gathering. She spoke of the self-made American men as the greatest aristocrats of the world, citing Col. Charles A. Lindbergh as a splendid example.

Contacts in early life in New England with Ralph Waldo Emerson, Mrs. James T. Fields, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Miss Betty Peabody and Edward Everett Hale, were among the interesting experiences related. Mrs. Winter also told of her experiences as a member of the committee of the Conference of Disarmament at Washington, D. C., pointing out the relation of the American man in the group of nations represented. The personal side of the conference was given in human stories of Woodrow Wilson, Herbert Hoover, General Pershing and others.

Following Mrs. Winter's address, Mrs. Robertson introduced visiting presidents and representatives from fifty clubs.

Honor guests introduced by Mrs. Emil Sturthall, program chairman were: Oscar Rasbach, composer-pianist; Mrs. Rasbach; Harold D. Carew, writer and literary editor of the Pasadena Star-News; Mrs. Carew; Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis Scantlebury and Kathleen Lockhart Manning.

The all Sierra Madre program presented by Oscar Rasbach, composer and Mrs. Janet Stevenson Wood, soprano, on which the honor guests were represented, was well selected and carried a spiritual message to all present.

In Paul Vidal's "Arietta," Debussy's "Romance" and Tschalkowsky's "Aria, Adieu Forests," Mrs. Wood sang with poise, clear enunciation and feeling. Mr. Rasbach's artistry was shown to advantage in a group of piano numbers "The Island Spell" by Ireland, his own composition, "Romanza" and Dett's "Juba Dance."

Kathleen Lockhart Manning's interesting "Sketches from Paris" followed by Rasbach's "The Laughing Brook" with its sonnet written by Elizabeth Ellis Scantlebury; "Forgotten Roads," written to Harold D. Carew's poem; and "Mountains," dedicated to Mrs. Wood, words of which were written by Leigh Buckner Hanes; were well rendered by Mrs. Wood with the composer at the piano. Mrs. Wood pleased her hearers with encores among which were Rasbach's "Du Bist Wie Eine Blume" in Mr. Rasbach's songs both singer and composer were accorded a splendid ovation.

Donald Thayer of this city, who recently returned from a concert tour of the East, sang Mr. Rasbach's "Gifts" by courtesy of Mrs. Wood. The song, which was dedicated to Mr. Thayer, was sung with deep feeling and was much enjoyed. Mr. Thayer graciously responded with two encores.

Beautiful Japanese magnolias from the gardens of Mrs. Frank Hart at Sierra Madre Villa and baskets of spring flowers from the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Conard, decorated the stage and auditorium of the clubhouse. Attractive programs and place cards were arranged by Mrs. Fred Griebenow, chairman of art, who also was in charge of the art exhibit on that day, which included miniatures by Miss Ella Shepard Bush and paintings by Alfred James Dewey, Henry Irvin Hawhurst, Lloyd Krebs, Caroline Webster, Janet Allen,

STATEMENT BY HENRY ISAACS

For the purpose of offsetting false rumors to the effect that I requested permission to remove the Kressly report on the water situation from the city hall for the purpose of having copies made, I wish to state that I made no such request, but that I requested permission to have a copy made from the original report in the city clerk's office.
This can be verified by the city clerk.My action in obtaining a court order was forced on me on account of having been refused permission to have a copy made, which was merely the right of any and every taxpayer. I am pleased to note that my action eventually caused the publication at this late date, of said report in full.It would perhaps be of interest to the citizens to have the council explain why this very expensive report had not been previously published for the benefit of the taxpayers, when same was submitted to it in November.Very truly yours,
HENRY ISAACS.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR MRS. BORRADAILE

A very attractive family dinner celebrating her birthday was given Friday, Feb. 14, at the home of Mrs. L. A. Borradaile, 391 East Grand View. Table decorations of red and white, typical of St. Valentine, were used. The guests included Mrs. Borradaile's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Colligan and children, Grace Borradaile and Mrs. Borradaile's two sisters, Mrs. J. Heyn and Mrs. Anita Otero.

MINNEAPOLIS VISITORS AT JENSEN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jensen of Albert Lee, Minn., arrived Tuesday of this week to visit Mrs. Amelia Jensen, 185 North Lima, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Jensen.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

Last week's practice went on in fine style before some visiting Monrovia fireman, Tom Henderson paid us a visit, as did also Frank Hildebrandt. During the regime of these two men as active firemen, the Southwest corner was not known, so they refrained from taking active part in this "side issue" of the firemen's circle. This is mentioned so Tom and Frank will not have to make any apologies or answer any questions about the secrets of the Southwest corner.

As has been stated in this paper in a former issue, the same officers were elected for another term.

The fireboys being under closer surveillance than formerly will have to be more cautious in doing things that hint on the unnatural. Just recently, a very attractive young lady was seen on the street with the usual attractive regalia and altho other people besides firemen were astonished, our engineer "Harmonica Harry" apparently lost his eyesight or in other words got his eyes full. While very calmly returning to his skillful labor, this young lady apparently disturbed his deep thoughts and like several other folks (including ladies) he looked. After taking a good look, Harry thot (as he was nearing the garage) he better take one more good lasting look and it was during this final cast that he tripped over the curb and fell to the sidewalk.

A group of the boys were gathered around a car and a story was being told. 'Twas a respectable story but ended with an expression of "Look at the old lady!" Just then a wife of one of the boys appeared and said "who's an old lady?" You can imagine our embarrassment.

The First Aid crew of our company are practicing regularly and are becoming very efficient. These boys are Joe Swanson, Lee Hibbs, Bob Babbitt and Vern Udell. At their last meeting they so man handled Bob that he complained of a head ache, but he was soon relieved by the appearance of Dr. McMillan and his associates.

A very sad disappointment occurred to Frank Lovell recently. Frank really has ambition to someday be one of the 400. He often visualizes the future as something big. Retiring with these thoughts uppermost in his mind he was soon submerged in dreamland. Soon his wife was awakened by shouts of "At last! At last! We are rich." Why dear what's happened?" asked sympathetic wife. Standing at the window and pointing, he half crying and half laughingly yelled. "Oh! Honey, look! look! they have found oil on our place. I can see the derrick." Just to humor the poor demented fellow, Mrs. Lovell very patiently arose and approached the window and sure enough, a derrick arose in the heights. Looking at the derrick and then at Frank, she ran for a glass of ice cold water and splashed it into Frank's face. "Wake up!" she said, "you silly thing, that's an aerial that Gordon Langworthy has erected for broadcasting and its not an oil well." The Lovells didn't speak to each other for four days.

Our entire police force are seeking education. In the daytime the night men go into school and in the evening the day men follow suit.

At a recent meeting of the San Gabriel Firemen's Association, Chief Richards was elected President. This is evidence that the accomplishments of the chief with the local fire department has caused notoriety among the fire departments of the valley. The interest taken by our members is the envy of a great many fire chiefs of other small communities. To retain interest in a fire department is not always easy and many requests as to how we do it are made by other departments. We enjoy our honor so we are assisting them very much. Through the Valley Association and through the California State Firemen's Association, the Sierra Madre boys are very popularly known. Which means that Sierra Madre is getting considerable publicity by our fire department being represented at the meetings.

We are endeavoring to procure some local advertising for our state magazine and as Chief Richards has announced we will do no soliciting but would surely appreciate the cooperation of the folks of our city in this matter.

Just one on Tom Schwartz before space is up. Tom can be seen most any evening driving around town with a wire dragging behind his car. The real aspect of this peculiar motive is, that Tom is hunting radio noises. This we do not understand nor either did the little boy who yelled, "Hey! mister, your Ford's shoes are untied."

Don't forget it is dangerous to clean clothes with gasoline or any other inflammable substance. The Chief says, "If you must do it, clean them out in the yard." As a reminder, don't trust too much in your own ability as an electrician. If your electric iron is blowing fuses, have it fixed by an expert. —FIRES OUT

AMERICAN ARISTOCRATS

A RECENT speaker at a meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club made the statement that the "greatest aristocrat in the World today is the American man." He expects service and gets it, whether in his own country or abroad.

Such qualities are admirable to a certain extent, but there are times and occasions when this American aristocrat should "come off his high horse" and RENDER a little service as well as receive it. Did you ever notice how contemptuously some motorists tolerate inspection from agricultural officials at the state lines? They appear to be terribly abused and even humiliated when requested to open their baggage for inspection. Those who come in from other countries often fret and fume under the necessary details of customs inspection. We are all in such a big rush all the time and resent any delay or appearance of infringement on our personal rights.

Now, beginning the first of April, we are all going to be confronted with a list of questions from the United States census bureau. This huge task must be accomplished in an almost incredibly short time and in order that it may be done right, we must all lend our full cooperation. Every question asked is really required and not an optional query into our private affairs by the enumerator.

This matter of the census is more than a mere count of the population of our country. There are vital economic problems to be determined for good and sane reasons. We have the definite assurance that any information given to the census takers will be kept absolutely secret under threat of severe penalty. Furthermore, no other department of the government, such as the internal revenue department where our income tax reports are filed, will have access to these statistics. Not even the president of the United States could gain the information contained on the census reports, we are reliably informed by the advisory committee in charge of creating the proper spirit of cooperation on the part of the public.

So let's not be rude and arrogant to the census enumerators, even if we do feel that some questions verge on the personal. Let's serve others if we expect to be served. A true aristocrat is always courteous and never a snob.

ECHOES FROM THE PAST

FOR obvious reasons, the present owners and editors of the Sierra Madre News are taking, and will have no part in the coming city election except as individuals. Last year, the News refrained from comment concerning the merits of the candidates but was openly against the spirit of a recall, believing conditions were not so acute but that they could be settled at a regular election. As the turn of events indicated, the mass of the voters believed differently and the recall was made effective by a tremendous majority. The News accepted the verdict of the voters and since that time has tried to do its simple duty in promoting in every way possible the best interests of Sierra Madre.

Being entirely free from personal animosity against any individual or party, the News has had no editorial policy for or against any political party or political aspirant, and therefore must take exceptions to any statement or statements that might tend to imply that the News is unfair. The news columns are at all times open to any citizen who may (or may not) have reason to feel aggrieved to the point of public expression of his opinion, and therefore it would seem quite unnecessary to impose upon the good nature of publishers in neighboring communities who can have no good reason for "nosing" into local affairs.

ADVERTISE IN HOME-TOWN PAPER

THE Oswego, Oregon, Review runs the following interesting quotation from the American Banker's Magazine, using it as an advertisement:

"No business in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This applies to all kinds of businesses and professional men. It does not mean that you should have a whole, half or even a quarter-page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in the town by looking at a paper. This is the best possible town advertiser.

"The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The life of a town depends upon the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man."

The Post wishes to thank Woodson Jones for his kindly donation of a dozen phonograph records. Will the rest of you brethren bear this in mind? If you have any spares fetch them along.

Ezra's community singin' club met as usual Monday evening last in the basement of the town hall. We are all makin' great progress if I do say it myself. Take for example, our asst. chaplain, when he sings the openin' number aint it just pathetic an' touchin' the way he draws out them long sob notes from out the rain barrel, then risin' to a high alto and so on until we all look down our noses with due thoughtfulness.

Comrades Stewart, Layton, Embree and Stinman, personnel of the close harmony quartet, executed most effectively the following numbers, "Do We or Don't We" and "Just Table It." Ezra had quite a time keepin' down the pianissimos in this number.

Recess declared. Prof. Knowse Everything gave us an exhibition of his marvelous powers at mind readin' which was highly entertainin' and instructive. All doubtin' Thomases were put to sleep first. Nap bein' over we go on with the story.

Alibi wanted to know why his sausages won't sell so good lately. Ans. Change the mixture a bit and look out for the seasonin'. Henry wanted to know so many things pertainin' to his future, things that might of disturbed the boy had he known the exact truth, so we thought it best to let him remain in the dark for the time bein'.

The town postman seems to be doin' a bit better seen as he took our advise.

Haven't heard a word from Pop Stinman yet, so can't say whether his condition has improved any or not.

VALENTINE PARTY AT SENOUR HOME

John and Wesley Senour and Selwyn Myers entertained at the Senour home Friday night at a valentine party, sixteen couples being invited for the evening. Games and dancing occupied the fast-fading evening hours, a new Majestic Radio from the Radio Shop furnishing the music. House decorations and the bountiful refreshments carried the valentine motif, and the youthful guests bade their hosts a reluctant adieu at a late hour.

Mrs. Senour and Mrs. Myers, assisted by Mrs. Collins, aided in making the evening one long to be remembered.

BEAR GIFTS TO VETERANS AT SAWTELLE

Mrs. F. L. C. Roess and Mrs. Philip Senour visited Wards 2, 3, 7, 8 and 22 at Sawtelle Saturday, taking a load of good things to eat, magazines and cigarettes to the men in these wards, who have been under the particular care, so far as such luxuries are concerned, of the local Woman's Club committee on cooperation with disabled veterans, of which Mrs. Senour is chairman. The committee has been most faithful in its self-imposed duty, and the men have many times shown their heart-felt appreciation.

LEGION AUXILIARY CARD PARTY

The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a card party at the Woman's Club house Friday evening, February 28, at 8 o'clock. Bridge and 500 will be played, with many prizes to be given. Refreshments will be served. Admission 50 cents, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

At the last meeting, Feb. 13, the Auxiliary was honored by a visit from Mrs. Gertrude Powell of Glendora, president of the 18th District. She gave a very interesting talk, stressing the procuring of new members, and complimenting the Sierra Madre Unit on the splendid work done for the local disabled ex-service men.

Following the meeting, Mrs. A. T. Evans, entertained the members at her home, 520 Ramona, in honor of the birthday of the Unit. Heart games were played, Mrs. Rowe winning first prize and Mrs. J. M. Steinberger low. A huge birthday cake featured the delicious refreshments served.

Ray Engleson of the state department of Professional and Vocational Standards, was in the city Saturday, checking up on contractors licenses held by residents of Sierra Madre. The state law now requires that each contractor, carrying on a business as such, must carry a state license, costing a nominal sum. The law is designed to protect the public against unscrupulous contractors and has been generally well received by contractors in all parts of the state.

Fleeting Thoughts....

Often in our travels our thoughts will be diverted from the fleeting scenery and turn back to that day of poignant sorrow, long since past.

It is then that we experience a consolatory feeling in the knowledge that the affair was handled in a most gratifying manner. And it is service of this kind that we ardently strive to render.

'Lavender Ladies' Pasadena Play House Production

The Playhouse this week is having a return to comedy and merriment after the somber days of "The Armoured Traff" when they will produce "Lavender Ladies" by Daisy Fisher for the next two weeks at the theater in Pasadena.

It is a true offering for spring for it has to do with love and marriage and two young things. Also, a great cast composed of Playhouse favorites will take part in this charming opus.

David Loring, who has just returned from La Jolla where he directed a group of one act plays for a dramatic club there, will take the part of the young lover opposite Ruth Covell who has herself, just come back from Wichita where she was ingenue for a stock company. She wishes to continue her work under Gilmer Brown.

Lenore Shanewise, well known not only as associate with Mr. Brown but also as one of the

Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother

Rev. A. O. Pritchard Delivers Splendid Address to Congregation

The following sermon presented Sunday by Rev. A. O. Pritchard Sunday morning, February the 9th by Rev. A. O. Pritchard of the Congregational Church, is considered a masterly effort and particularly apropos in the present day.

Text: "Honor thy father and mother that thy days may be long in the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee.—Exodus 20:12." As I read these words I can almost hear the voice of an aged person saying, "That is a good text. It is just what is needed today."

There can be no doubt that the effort to have the child "give free expression of himself" has often produced a contempt and disrespect which is shown in rudeness, indifference and in hardship. Too, the ignorance or selfishness of the parents have often produced, in the child, a feeling of doubt and disrespect.

The other side of the picture is seen in the titles of such books as these, "The Revolt of Youth," "Youth's Adventure" and "Youth in Conflict," to mention only a few. One such writer compares the situation with a mother duck who is trying to urge her ducklings to eat in the dried mud flats of a dried up pond where there are no worms. "They leave the mother beside the pond and seek out new pastures in the far off drippings of the new dam which has been built higher to catch the water." Perhaps they lose themselves on the way, perhaps they find themselves most capable actresses in the Playhouse, has a fine role in this production and her large audience will be glad to see that she is once more in the type of part which she does superlatively well.

Margaret Clark and Snarley Simpson and many others are in the cast.

as well as the pastures.

The young ducklings whom we will call the rising generation, are asking questions about old customs which show that a new life is stirring within them. They are asking honestly, "Why should we perpetuate an educational system which regards us as empty pails brought to a pump to be filled with water of the world's knowledge gathered by former generations and now given to us in such quantity and quality as the present custodians think is necessary and proper."

Rather we think of the period of instruction as a great journey to be taken under guidance of those who have gone before. We shall want to ask questions about the ocean, the mountains, the valleys and the plains. We shall want to know all about the vessel and the crew and the engine and the sailing instruments. We shall even criticize the way of sailing if we think of better ways. We are not empty pails, we are members of a crew on a voyage of adventure. We do not think it disrespectful to ask questions, to even ask that we be allowed to run the engine, to read the compass, yea to take charge of the ship, from time to time, if new courses are to be explored. And I ask you older travellers, is it wrong to allow them to be fellow members of the crew. The problem it seems to me is in giving the youth his proper place in the great exploration?

Again the youth is asking, why should we perpetuate a system of international relations which is colored in terms of war and competition? Cannot we apply the principles of cooperation and good will? Must we go on in cycles of years which end in a catyclysm like the great war? Is not that a reasonable question? Again the youth is asking about the family life and its mal-adjustments, about the increasing number of weak-minded and deformed children that are born. "Must this continue?" they ask.

Then about the church and its needless divisions. The young people are growing impatient. Why these divisions that seem based on little else than that of denominational pride and petty differences? There is no disrespect to John Wesley or the Pilgrim fathers in the fact that a group of Methodist young people and a group of Congregational Young People worship together. Indeed the lives and teachings of these former leaders have left as our guide these words: "More truth will yet spring from Thy Word." It would indeed be disrespectful for us to forget these words.

Parental honor is a mutual affair. It requires that the parents be worthy of honor. It requires that the children put away cock-sure attitudes and arrogant ideas which puts in the discard everything that is marked by age. Every age has made some progress but every age has built on the foundations of the past.

And so we ask; how can a child honor his parent? What is honor to parents?

In the first place have respect for their experience, respect for their past life, its struggles and victories.

The child of an emigrant may be far ahead of his parent in learning but how about the courage and idealism which brought him over? A father may have been born handicapped, but he now owns a modern city house, has good business and sends his sons to college.

A second way to honor parents is to allow them to share the experiences of life. This does not mean that they must be present at all times, or join in every party and expedition although that is splendid if possible. But it means to allow them in narrative, in picture, by souvenir, by records of various kinds, to live in imagination the lives of their children. Parents live their later lives largely in and for their families. They want to join in their successes and problems as well as in their defeats.

Another way is to train ourselves to realize that our obligations are more than voluntary, and that they have come to us without our cooperation. I know many people feel that only such responsibilities are obligations which are voluntarily assumed. They say, I did not choose my relatives, I did not choose my birth place, I did not choose my country. So why am I under obligations to them? I am no responsible. In a sense this is true but those who have attained the highest form of social and spiritual life are those who have taken these relations as more than voluntary. They are taken as a heritage. We become custodians of them and strive to enrich them that we in turn may pass them on to our children better and richer.

The circle of duties does not stop with men. It reaches on up to God. Paul says "I bow my knees unto the Father by whom every fatherhood in heaven and on earth is named." This means that the every fatherhood looks to God for its ideals and standards. It measures itself by the life and teachings of Jesus.

MRS. FRANK HART ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Frank Hart entertained 40 ladies as her guests at the monthly bridge luncheon at the Woman's Club House Wednesday, honoring her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Lee, a house guest at Hartwood for the remainder of the winter.

The tables were attractive in a patriotic motif of red, white and blue, carried out in flowers, flags, and candles appropriate to the season. Luncheon was served, and bridge was played later in the Osgood tea room, decorated in snapdragon and sweetpeas.

Honors at bridge were won by Mrs. J. L. Asbury, first; Miss Edna R. Green, second; Mrs. R. S. Corlett, third, with consolation going to Mrs. George Lehner, Mrs. H. C. Lieben and Mrs. M. D. Welscher.

Mrs. W. D. Richards won 1st, Mrs. F. L. C. Roess 2nd and Mrs. Patterson of Long Beach consolation at bridge played in the adjoining rooms.

Mrs. Wm. Lees, assisted by Mrs. F. L. C. Roess, Mrs. Philip Senour, Mrs. Ethel R. Davis and Mrs. Banning were in charge of the successful luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hartman have a house guest, Mrs. Molly Rutherford, this week.

Colored Minister To Tell Problems Confronting Race

"What Counts in America, Color or Character?" Rev. Gilbert W. Moore, colored minister of the Metropolitan Baptist Church of Pasadena will speak at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon on the work that is being done, as well as the problems that confront the Negro in and around Southern California today.

Rev. Moore was for five years superintendent of Negro work in the north under the American Baptist Home Mission Society, his field extending from coast to coast, and has had much experience along racial lines in pastoral and community service work in some of the largest cities of the country.

His wife, Mrs. Helen A. Moore, will sing Negro spirituals, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Myrtle Hill. Mrs. Moore has a beautiful voice and was formerly a member of Loudini original Fiske Jubilee Singers, traveling abroad for fifteen years, during which she spent two years in Glasgow, Scotland, training for social service and Christian work, spending ten years in Great Britain and Ireland. She studied vocal music under Miss Jessie Soga in Glasgow, the daughter of Tioga Soga, the first converted African chief, who was trained in Milan, Italy, and ranked among the leading vocalists of the country. She also studied under Madam Grace Winter, of the London Academy of Music.

Upon returning to America Mrs. Moore entered Community Service work in establishing "The Center" in Washington, D. C., under the National Baptist Board, and co-operating with the Howard University departments of sociology and theology. During the war she acted as a worker under the National War Work Council of the Y.W.C.A. in the famous "Old Hickory" powder plant in Jacksonville, Tenn. Returning from there she opened and directed the Morgan Community House in Pittsburgh.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore appeared at a missionary meeting in Sierra Madre last June and were so thoroughly enjoyed that numerous requests were received by the program committee from members of the Club to present them at the club house. The meeting will be open to the public without charge, and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested to attend. The program will be presented from 3 until 4. At the request of Miss Helena Whitford, her lecture on Japanese and Chinese Art has been postponed until after the Wistaria Fete.

The Drama Section of the Woman's Club met with Mrs. Chas. B. Klunk, 142 Santa Anita Court, on Monday, where breakfast was served to 20 guests at 10 o'clock, on tables tastefully decorated with sweet peas. Mrs. William Lees and Mrs. John H. Fitzgerald were co-hostesses.

Mrs. G. Frederick Allen, district drama chairman, read "The Doll's House" and gave a resume of the life of Ibsen. On March 3 Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, chairman of the section, will review at the clubhouse, Elmer Rice's "A Street Scene," the Pulitzer prize winner of 1929.

A group of members from this section are attending the District drama conference in Hollywood today. Following luncheon, the party plans to hear Lawrence Tibbett.

The Woman's Club of this city was represented at the President's Council held on Tuesday at the Rennie Theater in San Fernando by Mrs. John H. Robertson, Miss Clara Sykes, Miss Edna R. Green, Misses William Lees, J. M. Campbell, Phillip Senour, E. H. Porter, N. B. Hutton, Fred Griehenow and Elmer A. Green. Twelve hundred club women were present at the council.

Mrs. John H. Robertson was a special guest of the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday.

The Garden and Community service sections will meet in the Osgood room at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, and the Book Review section will meet with Mrs. O. B. Manchester for the February "Book Talk" at 11. An open forum, adopted at the last meeting, will be a permanent feature of the Book Review section. Members are requested to bring their own lunch and coffee will be served. The regular afternoon program for Wednesday is announced on another page of this issue.

The wistaria vine is expected to be in bloom about March 15, according to announcement made by Mrs. Estelle Fennell this week.

The beginners dancing class will be conducted at the clubhouse on Saturday night.

Dr. Frederick W. Roman will conduct his regular forum at the clubhouse Monday night at 7:30, to which the public is invited. The topic for the first hour of the lecture will be Frances Bacon and Rousseau. The second hour will be given over to discussion of the London armament conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright have returned to their home at Deeth, Nevada, after visiting Mrs. Jessica Wright since Christmas. Mrs. Wright is again at the post office after an illness of some time.

Desert Flowers to Bloom Profusely

This is the season when Southern California's desert works her magic charm upon motorists, luring them to witness the beauty of purple and gold mountains, azure skies, flowers, and many other attractions. All sections of the desert now beckon to motorists to follow good roads and fair trails to the odd and bizarre wonders of the Southland. All roads are generally fair, although very few wild flowers are reported as yet, despite the abundant rains, continued warm weather is expected to bring them out rapidly.

COPENHAVERS TAKE TRIP THRU PALM SPRINGS

This week end Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Copenhaver, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Doolittle, will motor to the Imperial Valley, stopping at Palm Springs enroute. Mr. Copenhaver's cousin, D. D. Copenhaver, will be visited in El Centro.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Eakman will be guests of Lillian Stevens, Campfire executive, at a bridge luncheon at the Pacific Coast Club Saturday.

Norm Morrison is at home with a severe attack of flu, which has affected his heart. The Morrison family has had a series of illnesses the past few months.

MRS. POEHLER ENTERTAINS DAUGHTER

Mrs. C. B. Hutchins, wife of Lieut. Hutchins of Coronado, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Poehler, at their home, 702 Manzanita. Lieut. Hutchins is on a cruise with the battleships to the east coast for the next four months.

MRS. ROESS ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. Roess entertained Thursday evening at two tables of bridge for her bridge club. Those present, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lees, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Senour and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Roess.

SHOWER FOR MRS. TARWATER

Brumbaugh appointed Mr. Goshorn a member of the Registration Commission for Pittsburgh, and his three colleagues elected him chairman. He was appointed a member of the same commission by Gov. Wm. C. Sproul in 1919 and again elected chairman. When the United States entered the World War and the Selective Service Act was passed, as chairman of the Registration Commission the subject of this sketch was designated by Governor Brumbaugh to supervise the registration of selectives in Allegheny county, and afterward became the governor's confidential aid in the selection of local draft boards, and government appeal agents, serving himself as chairman of the local board in his home district, No. 11.

One of the most distinguished honors accorded Mr. Goshorn was his election as president of the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association in 1915. During the period from 1897 to 1921 he attended and "covered" the exception of one year (1907) the deliberations of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and in addition was present and "covered" legislative sessions and party conventions in Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, New York and Virginia. He has visited the sixty-seven counties of Pennsylvania and practically every city, town and hamlet within its borders in over a quarter of a century of newspaper work and campaigns of Bryan in 1896, Geo. A. Jenks in 1898, Robert E. Patton in 1902, William H. Berry, 1905; those of the late Senator Boise Penrose and Governor Brumbaugh in 1914, and Governor Wm. C. Sproul in 1918. He was the bosom friend of Senator Penrose and the confident of others of the Keystone State's great United States Senators, the late Mathew Quay, and the late Philander C. Knox.

Mr. Goshorn is president of the American Republican Club (Pittsburgh), past honorary president of the Pittsburgh Press Club, treasurer of the Pittsburgh Board of Education, and city delinquent tax collector (1923).

By HARRY BURKE

Back in the gay nineties in Pittsburgh two reporters started on a long newspaper trail—Lawrence R. Goshorn and yours truly. "Larry" was still in his teens, a rosy-cheeked youngster full of fire, pep and ambition. His chief asset was an engaging personality that won him quick favor and helped him along the rocky road of inexperience.

Part of our job was to "cover" the trains passing through Pittsburgh on the Pennsylvania railroad. And it was a sure bet that sometime in the course of a year every man and woman of distinction in America would pass thru the Union station. At the time Mark Hanna was piloting William McKinley toward the White House, "Larry" made an immediate hit with McKinley, and whenever the latter left Washington for Canton, or Canton for Washington, he would wire "Larry" to meet him at the Union Station.

The men "Larry" Goshorn came in contact with in those days were the men who ornamented the "Who's Who of America." He won their confidence and friendship and this faculty was to serve him well in later years when he became political reporter on the Pittsburgh Post, and still later when he became political editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch. In those early days he had an intimate association with Senator Fairbanks, later vice president Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President Harrison, Tom Reed, speaker of the house; Senator Tom Platt, boss of New York; Matt Quay, boss of Pennsylvania, Wm. Jennings Bryan and a host of others.

For a few years "Larry" retired from reportorial work to become editor of the Post. He made good on the job, proving himself an executive of rare ability, but the inside work failed to satisfy his restless spirit and desire to be with the news in the making. The Post, being the only Democratic paper in Western Pennsylvania, assigned him to tour the country with Bryan. That was the beginning of his schooling in National politics. Since then he has been on the job at every National convention, both Republican and Democratic.

"Larry" Goshorn's political astuteness had its greatest admirer in Senator Boise Penrose of Pennsylvania, for many years the leader of the Republican party. For some years prior to his death Penrose gave ample evidence of his regard for "Larry." The senator rarely took a trip, and never one of political significance, without insisting that "Larry" accompany him. They spent most of the summer months together each year, either at Atlantic City, or at the senator's yacht, or at his shooting lodge in the Jersey meadows.

"Larry" Goshorn has long been in contact with the leaders of all parties, but he remains an idealist in politics, chiefly through his long association and admiration for William A. Magee, who is the only man to hold the distinction of being twice elected mayor of Pittsburgh.

"Larry" came to Los Angeles about four years ago. He built a beautiful home in the Wilshire district, and has become a champion booster for California. In my opinion Sierra Madre is extremely fortunate in annexing him. He will go far wherever he plants himself. His capabilities are without limit. Under his direction the Sierra Madre News will hit on all cylinders, and in his march forward he is bound to carry Sierra Madre to the peak.

La Canada, Calif., Feb. 18, 1930
The Sierra Madre News,
Sierra Madre, California.

Gentlemen: The people of Sierra Madre will, I am sure, regret to learn that you are about to retire as publishers of their local newspaper, but will be pleased and gratified to learn it will in future be edited by a newspaperman of long and successful years.

Mr. Lawrence R. Goshorn, the new editor and owner of the News, was for many years managing editor and city editor of eastern dailies and has enjoyed a wide news experience. He is a newspaperman with an almost magic sense of news. He can "smell news" even when coming in a few words over the wire. He has been for years in close touch with the political, financial and social life of the world. I look for a most interesting resume of worldwide news and events which he is so competent to write and which I feel sure he will give his readers week by week. Mr. Goshorn knows personally most men in the public eye, for as the political editor of the Pittsburgh Dispatch he has enjoyed personal contact with them. It will be unnecessary for readers of the News to look elsewhere for news of the world.

I congratulate you on having found Mr. Goshorn and Sierra Madre on having him and his family join your beautiful city.

With kind regards and my best wishes, believe me,

Very truly yours,

C. A. ROOK.

Outstanding speakers at the breakfast were: Mrs. W. W. Slayden, state federation president; Mrs. Harry Lewis Stroth, state program and reciprocity chairman; Mrs. Howard U. Sherwood, district president; Mrs. W. L. Austin, district chairman of motion pictures; Mrs. Elsbey Reynolds, district chairman of American citizenship; Mrs. Daniel Campbell, district chairman Bible division.

Mrs. Carolyn Collins, a charter member, and Mrs. Palmer Rhodes of Long Beach, a former member were special guests on that day which was one of the most important and eventful in the history of the club.

A short time ago, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Farrell of 304 West Central Avenue, were favored by a visit from W. A. Allensworth of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mr. Allensworth is president of the bank in Mr. Farrell's old home town in Carson, Iowa, where they had been friends since boyhood. Mr. Allensworth with his wife and daughter are sojourning in Long Beach to escape the cold weather in Iowa.

MRS. MOORE HAS GRANDSON—Mrs. Eva D. Moore, 71 Victoria Lane, has received word of the birth of a son to her daughter, Mrs. Powell Cassidy at Oklahoma City. Mrs. Cassidy, who has many friends here and in Pasadena, will be remembered as Miss Betty Moore, the first bride to be married in the new Congregational Church a year ago.

Robert A. W. Cox, who is taking a course in aviation at San Diego, spent three days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cox. Bob made his first solo flight two weeks ago.

NOTICE OF COMMISSIONER'S SALE ON FORECLOSURE.

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles.

HARRY E. HALL, et al, Plaintiffs,

JOHN T. LEDBETTER, etc., et al.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Los Angeles, on the 15th day of February, 1930, in the above entitled action, wherein the above named plaintiff obtained judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against RICHARD D. JOHNSON and BERTHA E. JOHNSON, Defendants, on the 11th day of February, 1930, for the sum of Fifty-four Hundred Thirty-seven and 15/100 Dollars gold coin of the United States, plus interest and cost, which said judgment and decree was on the 13th day of February, 1930, entered and recorded in Judgment Book 721 at page 4, et seq. (to which judgment and decree reference is hereby made), I am commanded to sell at public auction all the following described premises, situate, lying and being in County of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Lot 8, of Tract 8961, as per map recorded in Book 17, page 61 of Maps, in the office of the County Recorder of said County.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, the 18th day of March, 1930, at 12 o'clock noon of that day in front of the Court House door of the County of Los Angeles, Broadway entrance, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment with interest and costs and expenses of sale, to the highest and best bidder for cash, said coin of the United States.

Dated February 18, 1930.

E. ALLEN, Commissioner appointed by said Superior Court.
GEORGE H. MOORE, Esq., 918 Fidelity Bldg., Los Angeles, Calif., Attorney for Plaintiff.

City Council Makes Reply To Questions

The following letter is a copy of the reply by the Street Committee of the City Council to a list of questions presented in written form by the Progressive Civic League at a meeting of the Council held Thursday evening, February 13. The questions were published in full last week in The Sierra Madre News as well as in the Pasadena papers.

Feb. 21, 1930
To the Secretary of The Progressive Civic League of Sierra Madre.

Dear Madam: Replying to the questions submitted to the City Council in your communication of February 13th, 1930:

1. Question: Is Central Avenue to be 65 feet wide East of Baldwin Avenue? Ans.: Yes, in accordance with motions passed by the former Council Nov. 13, 1928, according to the minutes of that date, and reaffirmed by the present Council in the meeting of July 24, 1929, after conference with the property owners.

2. Question: Do present proceedings propose to acquire additional property so that this portion of East Central Avenue may in the future be improved to 80 feet? Ans.: No such acquisition is proposed. When the present plan is put in effect, it is proposed to establish a set back line for buildings in accordance with the request of the County Planning Commission, so that, if and when it becomes necessary to widen to 80 feet, there will be no extra cost for condemnation of buildings or other improvements.

3. Question: What portion of the project is to be assessed to the city at large, if any, and what portion to frontage and adjoining properties? Ans.: Cost of acquisition, storm drains and Sierra Madre's proportion of bridge benefits will be assessed to the city at large, including Central Avenue frontage, on the basis of assessed valuations. All other cost will be assessed to frontage except such portion of paving as may be paid by the county.

4. Question: Do present proceedings call for any improvement on Central Avenue west of Baldwin Avenue, and if so, please state what is proposed? Ans.: It is proposed to install proper drains to care for storm waters and prevent the flooding of buildings on the south side of the street between Auburn and Baldwin Avenues, sidewalks where there are none at present; lights, provided they can be installed for the price agreed to by the property owners—not to exceed one dollar per front foot.

5. Question: What type and name of pavement is proposed for Central Avenue? Ans.: Pavement for East Central Avenue is to be 6-inch asphaltic concrete, cold rolled process, known as Amesite, as per resolution No. 470, passed Dec. 2, 1929, after full consultation with East Central Avenue property owners.

6. Question: Is the electric current for the lighting of Central Avenue to be paid for by the whole city or the property fronting on Central Avenue? Ans.: Current for lighting Central Avenue will be paid for out of the general fund in the same manner as the present lighting on that street and all other other streets in the city.

7. Question: Has the county agreed to allocate funds for the improvement of Central Avenue, as proposed in the present plan? Ans.: Yes. The final settlement of amount of allocation is the subject of a conference between county officials and council members within the next few days.

In case your organization may wish any further details on these points, we would respectfully suggest that they can be found in the minutes of the council meetings and also in the columns of the Sierra Madre News of the issue of July 26th and subsequent issues, as full reports of all official actions of the present council in regard to Central Avenue.

In planting be sure that you set the bulbs rightside up. Do not remove the husks.

In Sierra Madre the soil is very loose, in most localities and bulbs should be planted deeper than in more firm soil. I would suggest that you plant at least six inches deep and if your soil is extremely loose I would suggest that you plan some sort of support for the spikes when they get eighteen to twenty-four inches high, some of the spikes such as Rose Ash may grow to four or five feet high and unless they are supported the wind or sprinkling may break or otherwise cause your stems to be out of shape.

Planting should not be made before March as the cold frosty weather will retard growth and if the bulbs get excessive water before they are 12 to 18 inches above the ground they may rot. It is a good plan to give them a good thorough watering once a week until they have grown to about 12 or 15 inches. From then on the ground should be kept well watered.

Project have been printed at the request of the council.

Trusting that the above gives you the facts that you desire and that your organization will feel free to call on the council at any future time for information which it may need, we remain,

Respectfully yours,

Street Committee of the City of Sierra Madre.
